Wow, I've never seen anything quite like this before.

Just outstanding! Jean-Paul Peutetre has done it again and he defies belief with this amazing stunt. I've seen some of the balancing acts he's done in other places, like riding a motorbike on a tightrope, but the setting here is something special – there's nothing quite like the Parisian skyline and the River Seine is such a beautiful backdrop. ² _____

³ _____ I have my suspicions about how genuine this is. Surely he must have had more support than you can actually see in this video and he wants to trick us into believing he really did it all on his own. It just doesn't seem possible that anyone would be able to pull this off – even Jean-Paul Peutetre.

This kind of thing turns my stomach. I just can't watch. The level of risk involved is so high and falling from that tightrope would have been fatal. ⁴ _____ So scary! Mr Peutetre must have nerves of steel.
